

Margaret Anne Loudermilk

October 12, 1946 - October 16, 2024

Margaret Loudermilk, 78, of Silver Spring, MD passed away peacefully on Wednesday, October 16, 2024. Beloved wife of 58 years to Charles Loudermilk; mother to Andy (Mercedes) and Meighan (David) Papalia; grandmother to Mary Frances, Katherine, Andrew, and Joseph Papalia, and Gabriella Loudermilk; sister of Stanley, Robin and Sheila (Lee) Dambroski. She is predeceased by her parents, Helen and Stanley Dambroski Sr., and her sister, Regina Savidge. She was the best mother and grandmother anyone could have asked for. She was passionate about reading, writing, art and whimsy. A lover of all things decorated with birds, scary stories, and scrapbooking, she was an excellent cook and a loyal friend. She loved spending time with her sister in Lottsburg, VA, supporting her grandchildren at their many sporting events and musical performances, and giving gifts to the people she cared about. She believed very strongly in the power of the Saints, especially St. Anthony and St. Jude. She loved Christmas and Halloween, and a quick trip to Michael's. Her greatest joy in life was being a mother and a grandmother. It's difficult to put a life so special into just a few words, but though she will be deeply missed, the love she gave in her lifetime will stay with us for the rest of ours. Details about a celebration of life will be forthcoming.

“ Deepest condolences from The O'Connell Family. You don't ever quite get over losing a family member but time does make it easier and the memories less bittersweet. \n\nYou summed Margo up perfectly in the obituary. Her super power was that she SHOWED UP to everything! No matter how she was feeling! She also knew exactly when it was time to leave; Super Bowl and retirement parties. \n\nI last saw Margo at a play Gabriella starred in. We were looking forward to seeing her on Broadway together. No doubt Charles Sr will be there and while we will miss Margo she'll have some of the best seats in the house!

“ Dear Charlie, Meaghan, Andy and Robin, please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of our beautiful Margo. I will greatly miss all of our long phone calls. She had such a loving heart and was so proud of her children and amazing grandchildren . I will miss her so much and pray she is now at peace in the arms of our Lord.

“ Andy, Meghan and Mr Loudermilk: Some of my fondest memories are riding to SJE in the silver Dodge in the early 1980s ! I also remember some great times playing stickball in front of the house and some overnights at the house cranking some stereo with the microphone 🎤. With all my sympathy, respects and sorrow for your loss. \n\nJim Beane and family

“ In 1979 Margo was doing ceramics. She created a pair of angels which she gave to me. \"Margo's Angels\" have been a permanent part of our Christmas decorations since then. They have their own special box labeled Margo's Angels. Thank you, again, Margo, for sharing your many talents. Ellen-Jane Pairo
