

Marjorie Ellen Handy

October 5, 1926 - June 17, 2024

Marjorie, was born on October 5, 1926 in Hamden, Maine. She attended the Hamden Academy and graduated in 1944. She married Howard Lincoln Handy, "Red," on August 26, 1945. Red was in the United States Navy. They travelled to Brazil, England and Japan. After the Navy, they settled in Maryland. Marge worked at Westinghouse for ten years. Marge also worked at the Oppenheim Collins department store located in the Harundale Mall when it opened in 1958. In retirement, they had a home in Melbourne, Florida and a summer place on Schoodic Lake in Maine. Marge adopted a dog that she admired at a pet store for several months. She named him Teddy. Marge returned to Maryland in 2010. She enjoyed walking, reading, crocheting and bird watching. Marge loved Maine and kept it close to her heart. She is preceded in death by her husband, Howard Handy, her parents Victor Walter Hamel and Lillian May Hargreaves, her brother Victor Walter, Jr. and sisters Jeannette Schaff and Geraldine Bennett. She is survived by, her sister, Sharon Quincy, two sons, James and his wife Susan and Victor and his wife Susan. She is survived by five grandchildren, Jeffrey and his wife Susan, Matthew and his wife Stephanie, Elizabeth and her husband Scott, Steven and Brian. She is survived by seven great grandchildren, Jacob, Nicholas, Joshua, Hunter, Julian, Victoria and Charlotte. Marge will be buried at Arlington Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

TC

“ I will truly miss you Marge!!

Trina Coleman - June 18, 2024 at 05:45 PM

TC

“ Such a lovely human being, it was such a pleasure being part of your care, such a wonderful family. Majorie from me I will truly miss..I love you and you will never be forgotten in my heart, my condolences to such a great family. \nLove Trina

Trina Coleman - June 18, 2024 at 05:40 PM

MG

“ Our sincere condolences to the family, who we all have become quite fond of. Marjorie had the most amazing, contagious smile. She was a very kind, soft spoken and a loving person. We will all miss so many things about her! \n\nAll your friends from ALW!

Michelle Gray - June 18, 2024 at 12:33 PM

AH

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for Marjorie Ellen Handy - June 17, 2024 at 03:17 PM