“ Mark, do you remember Busha always told us that when you die that you come back as a bird. I remember the day she had two birds flying around inside her house on Locust Street, boy wa she cussing out Jaju and Uncle Mejche that day. Well, for the past year a beautiful red cardinal comes to my birdfeeder every day. I know it's you, I even call him Mark, because he never misses a meal, just like you! Oh and Jackson was great, I even got to meet him! I love and miss you so much, I'll keep the feeder filled for you. Love, Debs.
