“ Babe I am at work thinking about you, because it's the day before Halloween. Soon you would be getting off from work and going to the store to get a candy for the trick or treaters that are coming tomorrow! Halloween and Christmas were your favorite holidays... Time has gone by so fast. You have been gone for nearly 2 and a half years. Until we meet again my other half...Continue to Rest in Heaven \nLove, Christy

“ My heart still aches for you babe....\nIt's been 2 years since you gone to Heaven! I would always say we are going to be sitting in rocking chairs smiling and laughing about all the fun times we had as youngster... we would tell one another its you and me babe always & forever to the end, we both had no idea forever and the end was going to come so soon! Until we meet again.....Love Christy

“ Mark
The love of my life...
Sometimes awaken and I still say to myself I cannot believe are you are gone, I look at the clock at a certain time waiting for you to walk through the door and say babe I'm home! And then reality sets in, you are in Heaven and that's your home now. I think about all the JOY you brought to my life for 11 years. We shared some great memories together. I will always love you. Until we meet again my love....Rest In Paradise.

“ Hey Uncle Marky , It's been taking me a while to put this up here because I honestly can't seem to believe this is real or able accept that your physically gone. You know the last couple of weeks have been an emotional roller coaster. Moments full of joy and laughter to the moments when the noise ceases and my mind seamlessly begins to race. Both time tears come as I think of all our times together, from our endless car ride adventures to our weekly meal planning and discussions. This one hurts for more reasons than one but uncle mark I am relieved to know that you're in no more pain. Thank you for your light , thank you for your support , thank you for your kind words and nature. Thank you for you being you , whole heartedly! May your spirit of love , kindness and joy continue to live and shine through us. I THANK YOU, I APPRECIATE YOU, & I LOVE YOU Until Next Time , Li Li  YOUR 1st Black Female President

“ Mark you truly was a light in everyone's life you came across. You always had a smile on your face and our conversations were always positive and funny. You will be missed and I thank you for bringing out the best in each and every person you came across. Most importantly thank you for loving my sister and bringing out the best in her. Rest in heaven and I know you're smiling down on us, until we meet again brother.

“ To the Love ❤️ of my life Mark you meant everything to me, we had 11 wonderful years with together. You fought a battle that most would have given up on, you are the true definition of what a warrior was, you never complained you just told me babe I am taking it one day at a time. My response was no babe we taking this together one day at a time, and you would smile and always tell me thank you so much for keeping me uplifted. I am at peace because you are no longer in pain and you are no longer suffering but I'm sad at the same time because you are no longer with me. This is not goodbye for us, this is a we will meet again someday in Heaven..... I love you 🥰 Christy Rest In Paradise my King

“ You were always known as the bundle of energy, someone who has never surrendered to situations. The sparkle of your eyes, the brightness of your smile, the goodness of your soul will always stay in our hearts because you were one gem of a person. Losing you is no doubt a significant loss to all of us. You will always be missed.
