

Mark Allan Sahm

January 28, 1959 - December 31, 2018

Mark Allan Sahm, 59, of Frederick, Maryland, went home to be with his Lord and Savior, on December 31, 2018. He is the son of the late William M. and Mary Lou Sahm. He was preceded in death by his late wife Kathleen A. Sahm. Mark was born at Saint Agnes Hospital in Baltimore on January 28, 1959. He was a 1977 graduate of Woodlawn Senior High School. Mark was a very hard worker, often working several jobs at one time to provide everything he could for his family. Mark's favorite thing in life was his daughters. There was nothing he enjoyed more than being with his daughters and grandchildren. He enjoyed crabbing, fishing, watching the Ravens and Orioles play, and his cat Nova. He touched many lives with his generosity and willingness to give. Mark is survived by his daughters, Priscilla Sahm, fiancé Steven, of Lewistown, PA and Kelly Cardarelli, husband Ed, of Huntington, PA, stepdaughter Patricia Scott, husband Chad, grandchildren Lacey, Katherine, Cameron, Kasey, Allison and Finley, sister Kim Collins and husband Jay, niece Kristin and nephew Jason. Also surviving is Mark's fiancé, Judy Morley of Frederick. Mark's love for Judy was unconditional. Mark and Judy had a special kind of love, and shared many special, unforgettable moments together.
