

Martin Steig Swensen Dudley

March 11, 1962 - August 7, 2015

Martin Steig Swensen Dudley Martin S. S. Dudley (“Marty”), 53 years old, of Silver Spring, Maryland, passed away on August 7, 2015, at the University of Maryland, Baltimore Washington Hospital Center in Glen Burnie, Maryland, of complications related to pancreatic cancer. He was born on March 11, 1962, the son of Edward P. Dudley and Marlyne George Dudley Payne. He grew up in Kensington, Maryland, where he graduated from Einstein High School. Marty was active in many sports, receiving several awards and trophies, including most valuable player with the Kensington Vols in 1976. He became a certified auto technician recognized by his customers and fellow workers for his outstanding skills and courtesy. Marty especially enjoyed nature and spending time at his family’s summer home on Beech Hill Pond in Otis, Maine. He is survived by his loving wife, Tina L. (Griffin) Dudley; his daughter Patricia J. Halloran; his father and step-mother Ellen Zinner; his mother; his sister Kimberly (Dudley) Eaton; and nephews Christopher Eaton and his wife Brianna, Ryan Khan and his wife Danielle, and niece Hannah Eaton. He was preceded in death by his sister Calison (Dudley) Khan, who died in 1999, and by his step-father William Payne. Marty is also mourned by many childhood friends including Jimmy Haley Jr., Glenn Yarborough, Steve Morris, and Michael Knight. A special thank you is extended by Marty’s family to Murray Richman, Marty’s employer at Murray’s Auto Clinics and friend, for his generous support during his illness.
