

Mary Sampson Perini

December 11, 1946 - May 20, 2023

Mary Jane Sampson DeBlauw Perini, 76, passed away on May 20, 2023. She was a beloved wife, mother, sister, aunt and grandmother who will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Mary was born in 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. She went on to earn a master's in business from Johns Hopkins University. Mary was an early computer trainer and later started her own computer consulting firm, before becoming a director with the User Services Center at the Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Lab in Columbia, MD. In retirement, she became a trained quilt consultant, artisan, and entrepreneur, while caretaking Doubs Mill – a 1700's converted grist mill – and running her business, The Cooper Shed, in Hagerstown, Maryland.

Mary is survived by her loving husband, Luigi Perini, her son, Chris DeBlauw, ex-daughter-in-law, Gwen Shealy, and her grandchildren, Alex and Ben. She was preceded in death by her mother, Vera Worley. Her memory will be cherished by all who knew her.

A private celebration of life will be held for family and close friends in the coming months.

“ So sorry for your loss. I will remember Mary from APL as always so polished in appearance, intelligent, always willing to help when I had questions with computer software, and for fun visits to their Doubs Mill home and quilt shop and dinners with her and Luigi...and her courageous demeanor while fighting her health issues these past few years.
