“ Dear Wendy and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Our dear brother Phil is now with his Savior, and yes, \"dancing\" with the angels. We thank God for bringing Phil into our lives at BBC, where he loved and served the Lord in that he loved and served us. Phil taught us that no matter what we are challenged with in this life, God will always use a willing vessel. Phil taught us what it means to \"literally \"delight \"yourself in the Lord. We will miss his smile, his hugs, and happy disposition. He lived, loved, and laughed well. Rest in Heavenly peace Phil.

“ Friendship transcends death. Memories made will never be forgotten and created a lasting impression on those they left behind. Everyone became a better person for having such a wonderful friend. Rest easy my old friend.
