“ Michael was my brother and best friend. We did everything together, even after he moved into his own house. He was always there for me whenever I needed him. He was one of the greatest people I'll ever know. I'll be missing him every single day of my life. Michael was incredibly kind, even if he didn't like to admit it. The world lost an amazing person the day he died.\n\nI have so many memories with him, it'd take a lifetime to retell them all. I remember how excited he was when Teen Beach Movie came out and how he got me and our other brother to watch it. I remember us singing the songs together, and him trying to perform all the choreography.\n\nI remember how much he loved to play Zelda and Pokemon. I would watch him play those games for hours, making sure to accomplish everything. He was always better than me anytime we played together.\n\nI remember when we would go outside and run around playing. When it snowed, we both made a snow fort and had a snowball fight. I remember when we went for a walk and he stopped by the store and bought me the largest bottle of water I've ever seen because he noticed I was having trouble. I remember drawing pictures with him and watching the animations he made when we were young. I still listen to all the songs he used to show me.\n\nMichael was such a wonderful and strong person. He knew how to brighten someone's day no matter what.\n\nI love you so much,\nRemy Donaldson

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Michael's family. I remember Michael when he was a student in my class at RWES. He was so kind and considerate. He loved math and his cousin, Gary. He was a strong soul who overcame so much. \n~Mrs. Brenna Talbard
