“ Most of my memories of Jacob are when he was very young; Jacob was such a cute little guy, and he gave a really great hug. I am thankful to have been able to spend some time with him again a couple of years ago. Dustin, Jacob, me and Mandy met up at Twains. We talked, we ate burgers and tacos and we laughed...we laughed a lot. It is a very good memory. Rest in Peace Jacob, you are in very good company.
