

Mitchell Peter DuHadaway

March 23, 1961 - September 20, 2019

Mitchell Peter DuHadaway, 58, of Elkton, Maryland, passed away at home on September 20, 2019 surrounded by family. Mitchell was born on March 23, 1961, son of the late Marion Calleo and Nicholas Calleo. Mitchell is survived by his four daughters Mariana, Lauren, Julia and Hannah DuHadaway; future son-in-law Ronald Phipps; grandsons Jackson and Abel Valladares; sister Catherine O'Conner; nephew Harley Haller and nieces Nicole Aleshire, Diana Nichols and Dawn Wyatt; closest friends Steve Yeninas, Jimmy Spicer, Britt Parrack, Miguel Nino and Mark Homiller and several other family members and friends. Mitchell was preceded in death by his brother James DuHadaway and sister Margaret DuHadaway. In addition to being Mr. Mom and deeply caring about his children, Mitchell was most passionate about music and was a drummer for many years; he loved Rock n' Roll and jamming out with his band. He also loved camping in the mountains, gardening, collecting antiques and restoring vehicles. The memorial service will be held at Newark Wesleyan Church, 708 W Church Rd, Newark, DE 19711 on Friday, September 27, 2019 at 6:00 PM and a celebration of life dinner will follow; to honor what Mitchell was most passionate about, classic rock music t-shirts will be worn by his family and we invite others to join in.
