Nicholas Anthony Petrosillo

January 22, 1939 – March 14, 2026

Nicholas A. Petrosillo, 87, of Centreville, MD (formally of Baldwinsville and Syracuse, NY) passed away peacefully on March 14, 2026 with his son John Petrosillo and son-in-law Timothy Mortimore, at his side.

Nick was born in Syracuse on January 22, 1939 to John and Mildred Fashana Petrosillo. He proudly served in the US Air National Guard and later became a successful businessman as a food broker; a business that he would later purchase and maintain. His successes in the food business led to conferences and awards which allowed him to travel with family and friends to destinations around the world.

Nick enjoyed several hobbies, including many home improvements throughout the years. He also enjoyed boating with his wife Sylvia and forged many friendships in the boating community. He was an avid golfer and a fan of Syracuse University sports as well as the Buffalo Bills football team.

Nick and Sylvia later retired to Maryland to be closer to family there. While in Maryland, they quickly made new friendships in their retirement community.

Nick is survived by loving family including son John Petrosillo, son-in-law Timothy Mortimore, brother-in-law Robert Hoke and numerous nephews, nieces and cousins. He is predeceased by his loving wife of 62 years, Sylvia Petrosillo, his parents, his brother Raymond Petrosillo, his sister Amelia Cavino, brother-in-law Anthony Cavino, and sister-in-law Sandra Hoke.
