“ For some reason, my memory didn't post last year. Nic, I miss you. You were always the brightest light in every game we played, even when you were imposter. Every time you laughed or spoke, everyone around you couldn't help but smile. We all miss you G. 🧡

“ Nicky was one of my absolute favorite people. We met at Walmart and quickly became friends. No matter what we were doing if we saw each other we would start dancing. We did anything to make each other laugh. He was so goofy and I love him so much. I truly miss him and his craziness. Rest in heaven my little brother.

“ I didn't know nick really long. started gaming with him about 4 months ago.. but in those 4 months I learned a lot about him as a person. He stood up for his friends, he didn't tolerate people being bullies and he would call his friends out for it. He loved everyone, and everyone loved him with a fierceness that our streamer community has for each other. We had a tribute night for him where we talked about how fun he was to play with and did a lot of his moves. I will never forget you Nick.. Tiny G I'm sorry for your family's loss.

“ Nic my heart is broken to pieces. You were the first one to help me meet some amazing people. Your passion for gaming brought me back to my passion I had lost. You was there on my good and bad days. You are my best friend! Between our games and chats, you will forever be in my heart! My kids love you. Tasha and Todd are heartbroken but says you'll be their forever angel. I will forever miss you flying back on all my jump scares and singing our song while playing Among Us to Dead by Daylight. You are my best friend and I'll forever cherish our time together. You made the gaming world fun even on your bad days you put on a smile and put a smile on our faces. I have your Among Us orange with me and will hold on to it on my bad days as if you was here to just talk. TinyG you will be missed daily and cherished for a lifetime! I know you will be our angel watching over us. We love and miss you TinyG!! Love CrazyMom2(Amanda) Funny (Tasha) Adrive (Todd) Fly High TinyG...

“ Spending an evening out with our dad was like heaven because we were together as a family like we were as kids. Nick and I loved the idea of being on the Harbor in a paddle boat. Unfortunately, the paddle boat couldnt withstand the weight of our awesomeness and it started to take on water. I was terrified. Nick may have been, im not sure. After the fact, and many years later, we always laughed in unison as we remember sinking in the Inner Harbor together.
