“ They say you never have friends later in life like the ones you had growing up, and that is so true. You have been my friend for close to 40 years, so that makes you family. Although our lives went in different directions when we became adults we always kept in touch, and always picked right up as if we had just talked. Almost every childhood memory has you & Robin in it. I can't go to Fells Point without seeing something or someone that reminds me of you. Everything has changed, yet some things are still the same. Baltimore St Park, the school yard, Patterson Park and of course Duncan St. I will forever hold those memories close to my heart, those were some of the best days of our lives. I still remember our last phone call, it ended with us both saying I love you. I still can't believe you're gone. I pray you've peace & happiness, and that you've reunited with Justin, your Mom, Big Ben, Kevin, and all the friends we've lost along the way. I'm not going to say goodbye, instead I'm going to say I'll see you when I get there. I love you Nicole and I'll never forget you, MC Lips will live forever inside of my heart. Rest easy my friend ♡
