

Patricia Fowler

January 18, 1959 - August 8, 2025

Patricia S. Fowler, 66, of Baltimore, Maryland, passed away on August 8, 2025. She was born on January 18, 1959, and lived a life filled with quiet strength, unique charm, and a love for the simple joys that made her happiest.

Patricia was married once and later divorced, and for the past 22 years she shared her life with her devoted partner, Alan Balding. She was the proud mother of three children, James Fowler, John Fowler, and Molly Adams, and the loving grandmother to twelve grandchildren, who brought her endless pride and joy.

One of the older children in a large family, Patricia had twelve brothers and sisters, with three surviving today. Though she valued her solitude and was often a private person, those who were fortunate enough to know her well treasured her spunky personality, her quick wit, and the warmth she shared in her own special way.

She had a lifelong love of animals—especially dogs—and found comfort in the simple pleasures of a Hershey's chocolate bar, a cup of coffee made just the way she liked it (four creamers and two sugars), and anything in her favorite color, purple.

Patricia will be remembered for her independence, her resilience, and the quiet but deep love she had for her family. Her memory will live on in the hearts of all who loved her.

Services will be held at her daughter, Molly Adams, home, with details to follow.

“ She was so happy for me to get married. Looking at these pictures, she looked at me with so much love in her eyes. I love you so much mommy. May you rest easy and always look over me and your grandkids.
