“ There are never the right words in a time like this. Everyone grieves in their own way. Paul will be forever remembered as a happy smiling person who brought sunshine to everyone's life. He was so entwined in our lives both my husband and I. First memory I have is paul going to capital raceway with me on Friday nights, I was new to the area and we clicked immediately. We would sit and talk till the sun came up about everything and nothing. Just being there sometimes helped. Over the years we always stayed in touch and on our wedding day we had a few friends come bak to our house and relax, well he was one of them. That night will never be forgotten. Never judged, always listened and if you gave him the time her would give you the world. Rest in peace my friend, you will always love on in our hearts and memories

“ Paul I will see you smile in my heart everyday, I know you are gone in body...I will miss your hugs, if only I could have had one more... You are and Angel on my shoulders, and you will give stregnth...My child, I will always love you, and I promise to keep your wish..It may take awhile, but I will do it... You will see it come true from heaven.....Love Momma...I will miss that, you always called me Momma I tried to light a candle for you, but the sight had issues...I would light them all for you if I could!!!!
