

Peter Dimaya Martin

October 28, 1965 - May 30, 2023

Peter “Pete” Dimaya Martin, 57, passed away on May 30, 2023 surrounded by his loved ones. Pete was born to Florence D. Martin and Vicente V. Martin on October 28, 1965.

Pete is survived by his beautiful wife, Barbara. The two of them met and got engaged two weeks later. The rest was history. Pete enjoyed trips to Ocean City, double-date nights with friends, and ice cream with Barbara. Pete leaves behind his children Chad Holloway, Vicente Martin, and Haleigh Martin. Pete is survived by his parents, Florence D. Martin and Vicente V. Martin. We are blessed and grateful for the love he has given as a husband, the guidance and protection he has given as a father, and the knowledge and wisdom he has shared as a son. Though our time was cut short, Pete left us with many valuable lessons and many memories to cherish.

Pete was a great friend to many and a brother to many more. Pete worked at Johns Hopkins for 37 years. Pete's coworkers were an extension of his life and his family away from home. His work ethic was hard-working, super reliable, intuitive, and always playful. Pete will be remembered as a family man and the life of the party. Many have referred to Pete as the “coolest” with impeccable style. Though Pete had many hobbies, his favorites involved detailing his cars, playing his music loud, and busting a move on the dancefloor. Other hobbies involved cooking amazing dishes, documenting beautiful moments, and spending time with his animals.

We know you're dancing to your favorite songs with your favorite Invicta watch on. Thank you for a lifetime of memories. We love and miss you!

In Lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Johns Hopkins Kimmel Cancer Center in Pete's honor. A celebration of life is scheduled at a later date and will be shared by his wife and children ahead of time

“ I remember Pete as being a really great person. I know my cousin Lois thought a great deal of him. My best memory is of Pete and a young Chad coming up Lois side and the were dressed alike and Lois saying they were like the movie Twins.
