

Ramon Moleiro Lopez

August 22, 1937 - January 11, 2024

Ramon Moleiro Lopez passed away on January 11th, 2024.

He was born on August 22nd, 1937 in New York to the late Benito Lopez, Sr. and Theresa Volpe.

He was preceded by his parents and his brother Benito M. Lopez, Jr.

He is survived by his sister-in-law Roslie Lopez; nephews Matthew Lopez and his wife Patricia, Christopher Lopez and his wife Carrie, and Dan Lopez and his wife Helena. He is also survived by his many great nieces, nephews and other loving family and friends.

A memorial service celebrating Roman's life will be celebrated in the coming weeks. Burial in New York will be at a later date.

Tribute Wall

MS

“ I started with Gilbane in '82 under Ray's leadership, in Chicago. I have always attributed Ray with my early opportunities to be challenged and advance.\nHe was a brilliant man, thorough, tough, plus engaging, caring and fun.\nMy condolences to his family. Rest in Peace.

Myrton Schlechtweg - February 02, 2024 at 09:13 AM

PE

“ Ray was an incredible Gilbaner, who dedicated all his resources to make it easy for users to accomplish their goals. Privileged to have worked with him on quite a few projects. Outstanding individual, who was respected and loved by all. Rest in Peace and heartfelt condolences to his family and friends.

Paul Eddy - February 01, 2024 at 10:35 AM

AL

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for Ramon Moleiro Lopez - January 15, 2024 at 03:24 PM