“ I've known Rasheed since I was twelve, we have been friends ever since. From playing basketball to kickball.. to football to watching anime to action cartoons. To working together at Dennys , To roommates to working at waste Management. To calling out sick , to play Xmen on the ps2 12 hours straight. Then next day off to twilight zone comics. To debating the biggest debate of all goku vs superman. To writing and drawing creating our own characters. It an honor to have such a wonderful friend to share half of my life with. You will be truly missed my sincere condolences to the Coleman family.
