

Raymond Pierce Miller

April 20, 1933 - November 25, 2023

Raymond Pierce Miller, 90, of Baltimore Maryland died in his home on Saturday, November 25th, 2023. He was born in Baltimore in 1933. He had a love for sports and was known as "Monday miller" in the basketball community. In his later years, he dedicated his time working at Joe cannon stadium for more than 20 years. Anyone who ever met Raymond knew how kind of a man he was. He will be forever loved and missed.

Raymond was preceded in death by his wife, Ethel Grace Miller and son Thomas Orr. He is survived by sons James Orr and Walter Orr. He also leaves behind grandchildren Crystal & husband John, Josh & wife Jessica, and Scott, Chris, Austin, Matthew Orr and many nephews, nieces, and great grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ Just wanted to say we love and miss you Ray. You lived a long and full life and your at peace now. I'm glad I was able to be a part of your life and thankful you were a part of mine.

John manning - November 28, 2023 at 12:16 PM

MM

“ Niece Crystal, \r\nYour Gpa was blessed to have you, his loving grand daughter, in his world. I'm positive your presence and care, comforted him in a variety of ways. Most especially in these last few years, as he became aware that his health was declining. My hope is that you realize just how much your loving presence enriched both your grand parents lives. \r\nWith Sympathy, Aunt Margo and Aunt Melissa

Margo McFarland - November 28, 2023 at 08:46 AM

AM

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for Raymond Pierce Miller - November 27, 2023 at 08:39 AM