

Rebecca Lea Schoolcraft

October 23, 1994 - August 9, 2020

With deep sadness, the family of Rebecca announces her passing on August 9, 2020. She was born in East Berlin, Pennsylvania and passed where she resided in Baltimore, Maryland. She is survived by her parents, Jeff and Karen Schoolcraft, and her stepmother, Tammy Schoolcraft of North Carolina, her sisters; Sara Schoolcraft, Rachel (Sam) Stadvold, and Elizabeth Schoolcraft, her nephew, Slade, grandparents, Ruth Evans and David Schoolcraft, as well as many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Rebecca precedes in death her grandfather, Paul Evans Jr. and grandmother, Lois Schoolcraft. Rebecca's 25 years of life were full of love and adventure. Her favorite adventure was getting lost in a book. No page was to be left unturned. Her laugh was so big and loud that it alone could make others laugh. She had a fierce love for dogs and cats, always only a few steps away from being a crazy cat lady. She was an advocate for helping others when they were in need, knowing that each person can use some kindness. Rebecca lived by one of her favorite quotes, "Life should not be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in a pretty and well preserved body, but rather to skid in broadside in a cloud of smoke, thoroughly used up, totally worn out, and loudly proclaiming "Wow! What a ride!" by Hunter S. Thompson. Rebecca's wishes have always been to smile when you think of her and to not spend too much time crying over me knowing that now I am free. May the wind always be at your back, and the sun upon your face, and may the wings of destiny carry you aloft to dance with the stars.

“ Rebecca was the bestest friend I could ever had. Every time I saw her she always had a smile on her face. She has always set a good mood for everyone. I really loved her in my presence. She always gave me the positive energy I needed. Whenever I needed advice or was sad she was always there for me and she will always be in my memories. RIP babes. We all love you

“ I went high school with Becca and we shared 2 classes together. I always looked forward to class because I knew she would be there. She always made me laugh and it felt like nothing else mattered when we were together. We had so much fun cracking jokes and just talking. She had a bright beautiful spirit. Love you Becca, rest peacefully.

“ We weren't best friends or anything like that, but the times we did speak and talk she was nothing but kind and friendly. I'm sad to see her go, especially when it seems she was so happy at where she was. Rest in peace Becca, I hope you aren't suffering anymore.

“ Rebecca came to stay with me and avory cassell for a few days. She ended up getting snowed in for a few days longer. It was so much fun staying up talking all night, watching movies and I think we even baked some homemade bread. Her words were best vacation ever let's do it again sometime. I love you Rebecca you will always be one of my children.

“ I met Rebecca a few years ago when she first moved to Baltimore. She always told me I was her first real friend in the city. We would get lost in ridiculously long conversations that took us late into the night. I will remember Becca for her gentle heart, unmistakable laugh and her fierce defense for anything she cared about. Rest easy, Becca. Your memory will live on in all those who love you.
