

Richard Franklin Emmett

June 4, 1934 - March 26, 2024

Richard Franklin Emmett, 89, died on March 26, 2024 from complications due to Alzheimer's. Phyllis Emmett, his wife of 30 years, was with him. "Dick" was born on June 4, 1934 to Elmer Roscoe Emmett and Marion Fullerton Emmett. He had an older brother Donald Fullerton Emmett. The family lived in Saugus, Massachusetts. Dick graduated from the US Naval Academy in 1957 as a member of the Fourteenth Company. He was a submariner and weapons officer in his 30-year Navy career, rising to the rank of Commander. He had a second career as a tax preparer. He and Phyllis enjoyed sponsoring Midshipmen. Dick's lifelong passion was sailing. He raced and cruised on the Chesapeake Bay; was a volunteer sailing coach at the Naval Academy for over 20 years; and was the treasurer for multiple sailing associations. Dick is survived by his wife Phyllis Emmett; his daughters Meredith Emmett (Galia Goodman) and Sarah Ozols (Rich Ozols); and granddaughter Danielle Paige Ozols.

“ Dear Phyllis, family and friends of Dick, \nOn behalf of the United States Submarine Veterans, we offer our sincere condolences at Dick’s passing. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. We are always saddened whenever a fellow \n“Bubblehead” departs on Eternal Patrol. He served with honor on the USS Tang SS-563, USS Gudgeon SS-567 and USS Quillback SS-424. \nTo our \n“Brother-of-the-Phin” we say, \n“Sailor, rest your oar. We have the watch. Fair Winds and Following Seas.” Thank you for your service to our country.\nPhyllis and family... \n“may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in every way. The Lord be with you.” 2 Thessalonians 3:16 (ESV). \nJim Sandman, FTC(SS) Ret, \nNational Chaplain, USSVI.\nwww.jimsandman.com
