

Richard Kenneth Geier

April 11, 1975 - April 13, 2024

It is with great sadness and an extremely heavy heart that I share with you the passing of my younger brother Rich. Rich is survived by his brother Robert Carl Geier, sister Jean Marie Dellman, and partner of 9 years, Christina Walker.

Rich was the gentle giant with a heart of gold. He was my “Big little brother” at a whopping 6 foot 4. He was one of the most caring souls that anyone had the pleasure of knowing. He was our rock when my father passed away last year, and regularly checked in on all of our family.

Rich was an artist, whether he was drawing a picture for a friend, painting an abstract image, or writing a poem.

Rich adored his life partner Christina Walker and in her words “he did everything for me, I can’t imagine life without him”. We all share her sentiment.

Rich and Christina were discussing their dinner plans when Rich started feeling dizzy. He went into a seizure and never came back to us.

There are no funeral arrangements at this time, but a celebration of life is forthcoming.

“OMG, I am just finding out this. Rich and I became friends in the hospital. We used to go out to eat together once in a while and he took me over his house. He was so proud of his house and he was an amazing guitar player and I know he loved Christina so much he used to tell me all the time, you will be missed my brother. You were a true friend.

“So sorry to hear of my old friends untimely passing. We had finally begun making plans to meet up after far too many years and I was looking forward to a summer of hikes and convincing "metal" (old nickname lol) to finally go fishing. When I learned of his passing I was stunned. Rich was one of the goofiest guys I ever knew, and that's what made everyone love him. His zany sense of humor and nonstop antics when we were younger kept us all cracking up. Rest easy buddy, we'll catch up again one day.
