

Rickey Donnell Dixon, Jr.

July 6, 1980 - January 20, 2021

Rickey Donnell Dixon Jr. was born to Rickey Donnell Dixon Sr. and the late Gayle Sheree Powell on July 6, 1980.

Rickey grew up in Cherry Hill in South Baltimore and attended Baltimore City Public Schools.

His favorite sports were basketball and football. He loved the Baltimore Ravens and was a fan of the Chicago Bulls and L.A. Lakers. He enjoyed drawing, music, especially hip hop and r&b, dogs, and hanging out with friends. At times, you'll see him sitting on his porch or walking, most times by himself.

Rickey's untimely death comes as a complete shock to family, friends, the Cherry Hill Community, and to all those who worked with him. His final wishes were that his sister would decide and speak on his behalf when he could no longer do so. His sister was there right by his side when he passed away.

Rickey passed away on January 20, 2021, just one day before his late mother's birthday. They both passed at the age of 40.

Rickey leaves behind a host of family, relatives, friends, work family and all those who knew him. He left a big hole in the hearts of all those that loved him.

I pray that I'm not being selfish for wanting you to come back to us.

This is hard.

I can't believe that you're gone.

Seeing you days before and some time before that and you telling me your plans.

I was excited for you. You came a long way and was trying.

You told me what you wanted if anything happened to you.

I pray that I did my best.

We're all hurting and in disbelief.

So many questions but not enough answers.

You will be missed brother,

Your smile, laughter and your beautiful brown eyes.

My little/big brother...lol

I don't know how to do this, but I must carry on.

Those whose lives you touched are hurting just as much.

While we do not understand and are grieved,

We know that your suffering is no more.

While we have to go on without you,

Don't you worry about us,

Knowing that you're in our hearts will help us to carry on,

Goodnight dear bother

Until we all meet with you again!
