“ I'll miss you my Big Brother. I'm glad there's no more pain. Until we meet again. I'll always treasure the memories, particularly the ones when we were all young and living on Cambria Street. We played hide n seek, board games and threw water balloons. Prayers, blessings and much love to your family. See you later alligator.

“ Fly high little brother  We all miss you very much but thankful you are out of pain at last. Enjoy that Miller Lite with Dad, Mom & Danny until we are all together one day. It's nice to know we have 4 Guardian Angels now watching over us all. You left me with many memories of your shenanigans & why I called you Jug all these years. Love you and miss you, onery brother
