

Robert Carl Rautenberg

July 31, 1949 - October 11, 2024

Robert Carl Rautenberg passed away after a lengthy battle with cancer on October 11, 2024. Bob is survived by his beloved wife Pat whom he married in 1971. He is also survived by his son Brian and his two grandchildren Maverick and Brianna; his son Alan and daughter-in-law Rachel; his brothers Steven, Eric and Ron and his sister Karen. Bob is pre-deceased by his parents Carl and Louise Rautenberg. Bob traveled extensively as a child due to his father's military service and had his first job delivering the base newspaper when his father was stationed at Kwajalein. Bob attended college in Washington State at the University of Washington when he was part of the Reserve Officers' Training Corp and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering. Bob later earned an advanced degree while he was stationed in Colorado as a naval officer. Bob continued his world travels with his own family as a naval officer and was stationed in Spain, Hawaii, Midway Island, and many other military bases in the continental United States. After Bob's retirement from the Navy, he pursued a federal career as a civil engineer with National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) and that work led him to settle in Maryland. Bob retired from NASA and stayed in Maryland where he and his wife were able to enjoy time with their sons and their grandchildren.
