Bob was a passionate golfer who spent countless hours on the green finding joy and peace in the game he loved. Whether playing with friends, participating in tournaments, or just enjoying a quiet afternoon at his favorite course golf was more than a sport to him. For Bob it was a way to connect with others and find moments of serenity. His love for the game was rivaled only by his love for his family. Bob will be remembered for his gentle spirit and the joy he found in every aspect of life especially his time spent outdoors picking up sticks and acorns while smoking one of favorite cigars. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and a reminder that sometimes, the best moments in life are found in the simplest of places such as the front porch on a sunny day.

A private service for family and Friends will be held at St Joseph Catholic church in Odenton MD on 11 October at 11:00 am.

“ While I did not know you Mr. Wolfrey, I can attest to the hard work that you gave as a father in raising such a kind man in Mr. Patrick Wolfrey. He so proudly served our country in the Navy and continues to serve our nation while working for the National Security Agency. So dedicated in his work and his family. \nI am honored to call him my friend. Until you see your wonderful son again in heaven, Rest in Peace Mr. Wolfrey. Love, Gail Jacobs
