

Ronald Dennis Hale, Sr.

August 16, 1951 - December 24, 2024

Ronald Dennis Hale Sr., known to his friends and family as Dennis, was born on August 16, 1951, and passed away peacefully in his home in Brooklyn MD on December 24, 2024, at the age of 73. Dennis was a man who lived life to the fullest, with a passion for riding his motorcycle and working on cars. He was a dedicated truck mechanic at Potts and Callahans inc. for many years, where he made countless friends and left a lasting impact.

Dennis loved spending time at the bar, surrounded by his friends and family, sharing stories and laughter. His favorite car was an El Camino, and he was known for being stubborn, impatient, and showing tough love, but deep down, would give the shirt off his back.

He is survived by his children: son Ronald Hale and his wife Tina Hale, daughter Lisa Fitch and her husband John Fitch, and son Trapper Brown and his fiancé Mellisa Brown. Dennis was a proud grandfather to ten grandchildren: Theodore Hickman, Kelsie Hale, Kayla Hale, Roni Hale, Kortni Hale, Taylor Fitch, Camron Brown, Jeremy Brown, Trinity Brown, and Avery Brown. He also had the joy of being a great-grandfather to 8 great-grandchildren. 1 fur baby bella.

Dennis's legacy is one of love, laughter, and a deep sense of community. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

In lieu of flowers donations to the cancer society would be appreciated. Also a celebration of life will be held in the near future.
