

Ronald Joseph Major

February 16, 1948 - August 14, 2025

Ronald Joseph Major, 77, of Brooklyn Park, Maryland, passed away on August 14, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. Born on February 16, 1948, in Brooklyn, Maryland, he remained deeply rooted in the community throughout his life.

Ronnie dedicated his professional life to the Baltimore Sun, where he served as chief engineer. His commitment and expertise left a lasting impact on the organization and those who worked alongside him.

He is lovingly remembered by his wife of 47 years, Deborah Major; his daughters, Michelle Dixon and Angela Schofield and her husband Steve Schofield; and his son, Joseph Major and his wife Autumn Major. Ronnie was a proud grandfather to Keith Graves Jr., Luke Schofield, Jake Schofield and Brantley Major. He also cherished his great-grandchildren, Grayson and Lily Rose Graves.

Ronnie was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Angela Major.

A man of great dedication both at work and at home, Ronnie found joy in restoring classic cars-- a passion that reflected his appreciation for craftsmanship and history. He also treasured spending time with his family, creating memories that will be held dear by those closest to him.

Services for Ronnie will be private.

Tribute Wall

KB

“ Ronnie, you are SO missed. Still hard to accept. We love & miss you! ”

kate bradley - October 23, 2025 at 11:17 PM