

Rosemarie Dianna Grogan

November 13, 1957 - June 30, 2024

Rosemarie Dianna Grogan. Loving Daughter, Mother, Grandmother, and Friend. Passed away on June 30th 2024 at home surrounded by her family. She was 66 years old. Rosemarie was born on November 13, 1957 to Doris & Ernest Heint Sr. She grew up in Point Pleasant, had 3 siblings, Ernest Heint Jr, Steven Heint and Patti Ann Crowe. Rosemarie was preceded in death by her husband of 40 years Christopher Grogan. Rosemarie has 2 children Mandi McMullen (married to Ryan McMullen) and Christopher Sean Grogan (married to Sara Grogan). She was blessed with 6 grandchildren who were her absolute joy. Tanner Grogan, Gabe Grogan, Dax Grogan Janie Grogan, Greta McMullen and Magnus McMullen.

Rose was a talented floral designer who worked 20 plus years for Raimondi's Florist and was loved by so many of her customers. Rose designed flowers for all her children and nieces weddings. She adored her friends and knew how to make things beautiful with her touch.

Rosemarie met Raymond Howard in 2018 who became her boyfriend, fiancé and in the last weeks of her life her spiritual spouse. He cared for her daily in the last two years of her life and gave her a reason to keep fighting.

A celebration of life will take place on September 28th 2024. It will be held at the home of Steven & Barbara Heint. If you would like to attend please reach out to Patti Crowe, Mandi McMullen, Christopher Grogan or Barb and Steve Heint. We would love anyone who loved our Rosie to join us.

“ Rosie and I were very close friends growing up together and I'll always remember the laughter and fun with sleepovers, playing Barbies and hanging out with our friends. I'll never forget the funny stuff you would say and we would laugh so hard. We giggled so much in classes in school we were in together and when we went to Church with my and couldn't stop until we were scolded by my mother. We made our first Holy Communion together, we both attend the same schools starting in Junior High through High school, graduated together in 1975 and went to the prom together. I was honored to be in her Wedding and happy she was also a bridesmaid in my Wedding. Shortly after that time, we went separate ways and sadly lost touch with one another. Rosie will always be in my heart and I shall cherish the special friendship and memories. My deepest condolences to all the family. Cindy Mikelonis (Hajek)

“ We shared so many great times as childhood friends (Rosie, Diane, Libby and Lynn) slumber parties, dances at Spalding, camping trips with your family, we roamed the streets of Point Pleasant without a care in the world, we had forts all over the Point, ice skating on the creek, we shared our weddings, births of our children and so many other great memories. I was so grateful for the time we were able to share in the past couple of months, it was like no time had past, we laughed, we cried and we prayed, you will forever be in my heart, I look forward to seeing you again, save me a spot up there, I'm coming! Love you bunches. Lynn

“ At every meaningful event in mine and my sister's life, there Aunt Rose was. Bachelorette parties; showers; weddings; Chincoteague and in between. Aunt Rose's presence added a comfort to me during these momentous occasions because she simply \"got\" me. \n\nMy relationship with Aunt Rose has always been one of deep connection that influenced me in more ways than I can articulate. Having always felt like a bit of a \"black sheep\", visiting my Aunt Rose's house, going to her work, and visiting flea markets with her gave me a sense of belonging and inspired me to embrace the unique parts of myself. So much of Aunt Rose's aesthetic stood out to me at such a young age because it spoke to my own interests (even those I had not yet discovered). Her herb garden, the jewelry she wore, the way she rocked the color black, her effortless coolness. I see Aunt Rose in my own house, in the scents I like, in the tchotchkes I am drawn to at markets. \n \nThere are people you are just spiritually connected with in life, and mine was my Aunt. I tried my best to articulate this to you toward the end...I think you heard me, but because I know you and you know me, I know it's something that didn't need to be said at all. We already know. I will love you always.

“ My sister. My partner in all things outside the box. You were always down for trying something different. Like our day trip to see Joyce Meyers, or our first concert to see a Christian Rock band. Sisters on a mission to know Christ in an unfamiliar way than what we were taught as kids. We threw our hands up in the air and praised away. I think if I can be completely honest, that is when our souls just became so bonded. Even more than we had realized. Whenever you would receive a blessing from a customer at work or something in your day would touch you, you would call me crying and say, “I just have to share this with you”. You were there for the birth of both of my girls. We were the book ends. You the Oldest and I the youngest. Ann & Nancy Wilson ❤️. We laughed about being “Sister witches”with all our crosses and holy water. But truthfully Rosie, we were just 2 sisters seeking Jesus. Trying to survive life. I hope I came through in the end. I hope I walked you home like you asked me to. I carry you with me every single day in my heart. Until we meet again my sissy. ❤️ Rest in heavenly splendor.

“ Each day memories of my mom pass through my mind, sometimes they make me laugh and sometimes they make me cry. I was so lucky to have a loving, unique, and talented mom.\n\nGreta and Magnus have beautiful memories of their Grandmother, Rosie. She made sure they had sweet treats for every holiday. \nShe was the BEST and most thoughtful gift giver I know. Everything had meaning to her. Getting a gift from her felt so special.\n\nHer craftiness skipped me, but landed in her Granddaughter, Greta. She taught Greta the basics of floral design which has created beautiful arrangements her Rosie would be proud of.\n\nShe was a great cook and baker, a collector of all things, a hard worker, talented seamstress, thoughtful soul with a unique style and of course fabulous hair! I could go on and on.....❤️
