“ Ryan Banks was my best friend in high school. My mom battling depression evacuated me at 15 from my home and Ryan invited me to stay with his family. To this day that was the most generous gift anyone ever gave, thank you brother. Times were never easy for us as money was tight n we made some bad decisions to put a little change in our pockets. We fished the Monocacy, hunted the hills and found excitement wherever possible in rural Carroll co. I moved To Idaho and invited him to stay after hearing of the demons he fought. He visited one time and we drove 3000 miles back to Maryland in a uhaul. I'm sorry brother couldn't convince you to stay. I'm sorry we won't be able to catch another smallmouth together or laugh over big bong toke. Everything changes but our friendship will last forever. Until we can hang out again Ryan, soar with the angels You're in a better place. Love you bro. Mike
