“ My memories are his humor, Arm Wrestling when he was small, His incredible artistic talent, rocking him to sleep when he was sad-afraid- scared. When he was older my memory will be his consistent effort to try to be a good father, and to try to defeat his demons against all odds for his daughters sake. My current memories will always be my feeling the sadness of not being able to save him yet joy that he is at peace now. Safe in Heaven. Dad.
