“ Finally when I search your name, I see this instead of everything else. Shannon you were such a unique spirit. I loved everything about you. We became friends so quick and when I couldn't sleep at night, you used to call me and talk for hours. I hated talking on the phone, but for some reason any time we got to talking, we wouldn't stop and I loved it. You were so silly and you made me laugh any time I was around you no matter what kind of mood I was in. You were literally one of the best people I've ever known or met, and I'll never forget you. Your love for life, your love for other people, your love for animals. I just wish you were here.

“ I loved Shannon dearly from the moment I met her. She was bubbly, vivacious, silly, and so caring and sweet. She always made me laugh. We had many silly banter bits and promised each other that whoever left first, the other would tell the one of how I had these ‘memory vitamins’ because my memory was so poor, but I kept forgetting to take my memory pills. She always got a kick out of that. I loved her spirit, her love for animals, and her silly nicknames she would give me. One even caught on to an older gentleman that still to this day, 8 years later, calls me ‘Shrimps,’ a combination of Shannon calling me ‘J-Simps’ and his partial hearing loss. And I love it. I smile every time he’s ready for a beer and I hear ‘SHRIMPS’ I promise to keep Shannon near and dear to my heart. She was a beautiful person and I am so honored we had the time to create so many memories together.

“ I'll never forget how Beautiful, smart, and talented Shannon was. Even though she was my across the street neighbor she was a very good person and friend. I'll never forget her in spirit and I'll always remember her just as she was. Im still in complete shock by all of this. Who was once our Angel is now an Angel of God. And she will forever be remembered as such an Angel she was. I love you Shannon. My true condolences to out to Lisa Sauter and Lauren Sauter.
