“ 6 YEARS AGO YESTERDAY YOU WENT HOME. I KNOW YOU'RE AT PEACE AND LOOKING DOWN ON ALL OF US. NOT A DAY GOES BY THAT I WISH MY PHONE WOULD RING AND IT WAS YOU ON THE OTHER END. JUST DOING MY BEST TO TRY AND MAKE YOU PROUD. EVERYONE IS DOING WELL. JUST WANTED TO SAY I MISS OUR TALKS AND LOVE YOU MORE THAN YOU EVER KNEW. THE BEST MOTHER A KID COULD ASK FOR. TALK TO YA LATER SHIRLEY

“ Ma, it's been over a year since you left and I still don't know how I am going to get through this life without you. So many beautiful memories with you that make me smile when I remember them. I want you here Ma. I need you here. I miss you soo much. I know you are in a better place and you're not suffering anymore but I can't help being selfish wanting you here. I love you Ma. You are forever in my heart until my time comes that you can be in my arms.

“ Well Ma, the holidays are coming and I can't seem to get in the holiday spirit without you here with me. I miss you so much. You have taught me a lot of things in life except for how to live without you. It's been 8 months since you left and I still cry myself to sleep. I know you want me to live my life happy Ma but I don't know how I am supposed to do that. My Dr gave me depression meds and they were helping me not be as sad but then I feel guilty for having a good day and stop taking the meds. I'm trying Soo hard to make you proud of me Ma but how can I make a better life for me and the kids and Jayna when it takes all of my energy just to get out of bed? I will try harder Ma because I want you to look down at us and know we are ok. I love you and miss you more than words could ever express. Just knowing that when it's my time to go I will see your beautiful face smiling at me makes it a little easier. I wish it was my time now so I could hug you but God knows there are too many people here that need me now. I will see you when it's my time Ma. I love you.
