

Spencer Simpson Wise

February 9, 1936 - February 9, 2025

On February 9th ,2025, Spencer Simpson Wise, beloved father of Sherrie and Daniel Wise passed away. Spencer is survived by his sister Lois Lanigan, brother David Wise, his loving wife Bess Wise, his daughter Sherrie Wise, and his granddaughter Alexandra Wise. Alexandra loved to have her grandpa read to her and sing to her when she was little. He could answer any math or planet question and was always there to help. He was the kindest most loving father, husband and grandfather, always remembering every birthday and holiday, making sure we had cards and flowers.

Spencer loved to play dungeons and dragons with his friends and enjoyed traveling and golf with his wife. Spencer was an avid chess and bridge player, earning master points in bridge. He graduated as the top male from Beaver Falls High School. Spencer received a scholarship to Geneva College, where he graduated with a B.S. in chemistry. After serving three years with the U.S. Army, including an assignment in Germany, he became a computer programmer for Goddard, NASA. He was the son of Wilbert H. Wise and Dorothy S. Wise. Born and raised in Beaver Falls, PA, Spencer always had two brothers and an older sister to play with. A wonderful person and extraordinary man, now reunited in heaven with his son, Daniel, grandson Jeremy, and brother Wilbert Henry Wise III.

“ Spencer was a Most Loving caring Man who showed his Love for God and Family and care for others.Meeting Virginia and Spencer pbly close to 20 yrs ago at Laurel Baptist church ,Rich and I(Sheila) would try to keep in touch.Esply Moving down So MD the same town believe their daughter worked,as they would talk about often.Have thought about Ms Virginia often and so happy her daughter and granddaughter were up that same area to spend so much time together. Mr Spencer who was very outgoing came to a hike group I had coordinated back around 2007 or 2008 at Cedarville park.Everyone in the hike group enjoyed Spencer(in which I may have pictures)in which in amazement he was most in shape for think was over 2 mile hike,he was the only smart one came very prepared for the mud that day,considering had rained before the hike,with his tall rubber boots.Such a sweet person and so kind.Thinking of Ms Virginia often and prayers for her and Family especially this time if anything we can do,please let us know.Esply would like to visit Ms Virginia if or when she up to any company. Sending hugs,love and prayers.
