

Steven Scott Henning

October 14, 1958 - January 22, 2022

On January 22, Steven Scott Henning, 63, lost his courageous battle with cancer surrounded by loved ones. Born in Baltimore he was the son of the late Melvin F. Henning and Jean M. Henning. Steve was retired from the Plumbers and Steamfitters Local Union 486. He was dedicated to the work of the Lord and was a founding member of the Fishers of Men and Revive Us Ministries. He was also active in the Seven Mile walk. Steve was a talented musician with a love of all kinds of music.

Steve is survived by his loving wife, Sharon A. Henning (nee Clay); son Jason Comegys of Abingdon; daughter, Jessica Comegys of Aberdeen; sisters Nancy Charvat of Abingdon and Denise Lynch of Bel Air; sister-in-law Linda Ruth of Bel Air; and numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins. A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, February 12 at Emory United Methodist Church located at 911 Cherry Hill Road, Street, MD 21154. A visitation will be held at 11:00 a.m. followed by a 12:00 p.m. service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Revive Us Ministries via payable checks to Emory United Methodist Church, noting Revive Us Ministries/Henning.

For more information: simplicitycfs@dignitymemorial.com

Tribute Wall

JD

“ My deepest sympathy.

Jane Dryden - February 12, 2022 at 07:24 PM

SS

“ True gentleman Many good times RIP my friend Sorry for ur family

Skip Siscosky - February 01, 2022 at 02:05 PM

VS

“ I met Steve when we worked together at Johnson Controls. You couldn't have found a nicer person/man to work with or to be around, so sincere and respectful. My sincerest condolences to the family and especially his wife. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers and I know that we will see Steve again one day. Vicki Carroll Steger

Vicki Steger - January 28, 2022 at 07:20 PM

AH

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for Steven Scott Hanning - January 25, 2022 at 11:57 AM