“ Hi I'm Susan's friend , I have great memories of her. Miss her dearly. When we first met she came over to my apartment I lived across the street. My daughter had a stuffed fruit loop bird on a swing and we started playing with it what you would say it would say it back in a funny voice, well Susan got to laugh and so hard she fell off the couch I'll never forget it it was comical. Susan would always talk about her little brother the one that passed away at the beach she always blames herself and I tried to keep telling her that no it wasn't your fault well she's in heaven with him now and I know she's happy and I know that whatever she loves to do she's doing it. I'll miss you Susan.

“ My Sue Sue, I am always gonna remember your laugh, your tiny hugs,, and how strong you were to make it to 78 while battling life itself. You have always been kind and giving to those close to you. Even though you drove me crazy with your kind of pace. Those who know you best know what I mean, ❤️ . I love you always and until we are together again, rest and be at peace.... All my love Lisa
