“ My brother Jimmy who was Suzie's Dad told me a cute story about Suzie when she was around 3 yrs old. Suzie was a handful when little, she was headstrong and brave. Jimmy told me that he woke up really early around dawn. It's was still slightly dark outside. Jimmy and Sweetie, Suzie's Mom, couldn't find Suzie, she wasn't in her bed. They frantically searched inside the house. It was really scary. They decided to check outside and low and behold Suzie was swinging on her swing and singing a song in in her underwear. When Jimmy told me this we laughed and laughed. It was just like Suzie to do something like this. I miss you my sweet niece and I know that you are in heaven with your Daddy and brother Ricky. I will forever love and miss you Suzie. See you sometime in the near future \r\nAunt Tam 💕💕

“ I never had Suzy in my class but I knew who she was. Even on her worst days, I'd see her in the hall or in one of the offices and I'd say, \"Suzy Clark, how are you?\" And without fail, her bright, beautiful smile would say, \"I'm OK, Mr. Gast.\" She was never in my class but I always felt connected with Suzy. You will be missed, sweetheart. kg

“ It just doesn't seem fair for all you've had to go through in your young life. But they say life is about quality, not quantity. The happiness you've brought to so many people, the love and the joy, it's immeasurable. Those three beautiful babies you've left as your legacy will continue to shine your light and your love. You've been an inspiration to so many, demonstrating true strength and determination, and being there for your kids at all costs. Your smile, your love, your caring and your example of strength and courage will live on in all our hearts forever. Rest in peace Suzie, until we meet again. Love you. ❤️
