“ I knew Sylvia since 1977 and can not believe she has died. We had spoken last after she had been in rehab from an awful vehicle accident. Sylvia was working for Dr. Kassolis , a dentist located on Rolling Road when I met her. She had one son, Richard and I had three sons close to the age of her son. Sylvia was so proud of her son , she spoke of him often. My deepest and sincere sympathy on the loss of your very special mother.\r\n
