“ I worked with TJ for many years at MSDE and always looked forward to seeing her come in the building. Her wittiness and little cheshire grin when she said something with sarcasm I will truly miss. I'm thankful for the time that I was bidden with her. Condolences to her family, friends, and remaining fur babies. Take Good Care rest Well TJ until we meet again.... Fondly, Jasmine

“ I met Tabatha, I called her Tab, my first day of high school she had just moved catty corner to my house and we had the same bus stop for school. We intently became close friends and we stayed that way through high school and most of our college years. She was and will always be one of my best memory from that time in my life. When Tab moved Maryland I didn't want her go, but I knew she had to make her own way in this life. We tried to stay in touch but distance and life have a way of coming in between friends. She will always be in my heart. The world lost one of those rear souls that could lift up your spirits just by being near her. She was a true treasure and will be greatly missed.

ME

“ I met tj in 92 or 93. we were together as roommates and friends. Tj and I moved to Baltimore December 1996 and was dating by April 97. Are life together was peaceful and happy. in all the time together i think we only got in five fights and never stayed angry at each other for more than 3 or 4 hours. We got married in April 2012. I like to tell people who ask why did you take so long to get married. \“Well you got to get to know someone first\“. I always told her everything and didn't hide my heart from her and in return she showed me what true love really is. I never knew that love felt like that before. She was the highlight of my life. If you're lucky enough to find someone who is your best friend and true love. Well that's perfection. and that memory is going to sustain me in the last quarter of my life. Tj had numerous animals. Way Too Many to list. It did contain. reptiles. fish. Dog's. cats. guinea pigs. hamsters. birds. i'll tell you the truth the house Smelled bad but it was happy. all the pets lived full lives and started dying before Tj started to get sick from the chemo treatments. The house is empty now and it's just me. The last few weeks before Tj died it was full of coworkers and friends. and family. and her brother david and myself. Tj never stop smiling. she always did everything perfectly. i'm shore her father is proud. like i am. She stade a good girl and a good woman her hole life. To all keep healthy happy and safe.
