“ I do not know where to start. I met Tam in May 1986 and we married in September 10, 1988. Tammy always found the best in everyone and loved her family and friends. \n\nTammy has been sick for many years and I did my best to take care of her. I loved when we went out together on the days that she was able to leave the apartment. We went to Rita's and we both got vanilla on cream with sprinkles. Tammy, Jeff and I loved to watch WWE and we were very loud and carried on and had a blast. I feel empty and try to keep busy and stay out of our apartment. I know that she is in a better place and not suffering any more.\n\nI love you always Tammy and you are always in my thoughts everyday and night. Thank you for entering my life.

“ Tammy Mae, How can I say goodbye. We were the girls of Powers Street. We have been in each other's lives for 46 years. I truly couldn't have picked a better BFF and god you are my sister 💕. You and I could always count on laughing and being silly together and we didn't care. I am going to miss that smile and wonderful laugh. Who else will listen to 80s music and watch our favorite movies over and over again. Tammy you told me not that long ago I was your normal, but you were my normal. You always listened when I needed to talk and I always appreciated how you care about everyone and loved y many. Tammy Mae, our adventures were supposed to continue, but the ones we had were always fun. I love you and all our family always ❤️. PATTY GIDDINGS

“ Ahhh , the memories we share together! The times where I was at your house more than mine own, to the point I would call you mom as well! You always thought you were sneaky hiding your vodka but me and Ashley always found it ha ha. The dancing we shared and the laughs will be missed! You are and were an incredible person and was the best mom to your girls! I know you are looking down and smiling and so so so proud of them ! I miss and love you always <3

“ Tammy was 28 years old when her Mom and I got together. She was the daughter that I never had. She was very loving and welcomed me into the family. She was a loving wife to Ted, a wonderful Mother to her girls , and a fantastic daughter. I remember the cookouts and Christmas parties we had together when the girls were little \nShe was just like her Mother, family was everything. She will be missed here on earth, but I believe her and her Mom are having a blast in Heaven.

“ I will miss u and always be thinking about you forever. I know i was the son you always wanted and that warms my heart. You were the best mother in law and mom to me and I couldn't ask for more. I didn't know anyone that was as strong as you and loving. I always enjoyed our small talks cause u would always listen to me. I will miss coming up for wrestling and ordering food and hearing u scream and holler at wrestling to the top of your lungs. You were a joy to be around and the most wonderful person and I will always love you mom. Now it's my turn to take care of Ted.

“ I will always consider \"Momma Tam\" as one of the strongest women I have ever met. She openly accepted, embraced, and helped me from the day she met me with a smile on her face. She truly knew how to brighten everyone's day while also being one of the most selfless people you would've ever known. She always found a way to care for everyone and make the most out of a unfavorable situation, I would say she was the bulwark and glue that held everything together without a doubt. I miss you so so much and I know that so many other people do as well and I am at least happy to know that you are at rest. I love you and I always will, you were and always will be a truly amazing woman Tammy Mae Kenny.
