

Tara Tina Oplinger

September 16, 1977 - February 8, 2017

Tara Tina Oplinger 9/16/77-2/8/17 Tara Tina Oplinger, 39, was born in Sacramento, California on September 16, 1977 and passed away on February 8, 2017 in Baltimore, Maryland. A memorial service will be held at Gallery Church Southwest Baltimore on March 5, 2017 from 2:00pm to 3:00pm, with visitation from 12:00pm to 2:00pm. Gallery Church meets at Steuart Hill Academy, 30 South Gilmore St, Baltimore MD 21223. All are welcome. Tara was born in Sacramento, CA, grew up in Frederick County, Maryland and attended Boonsboro High School. She has lived in Hagerstown, MD, Boonsboro, MD Smithsburg, MD, Waynesboro, PA, and Baltimore, MD. She earned her cosmetology license in 2002 from Award Beauty School and worked for several years in Hagerstown, Maryland. Tara was a talented cosmetologist who enjoyed bringing out peoples natural beauty. She cut, colored, and styled hair, while listening to and encouraging her clients as she worked. Tara had a passion for people and always strived to make them feel good about themselves. Tara was known for her big heart and her desire to help people. She really cared about others and wanted the best for them. She always had a smile and a bubbly personality. She was a good friend and really desired a family. She considered her Church Gallery SOWEBO to be that family, and she felt loved and accepted there as a member. She will be greatly missed by Denene Yates, her mother figure, and Theresa Barberi, who she considered a sister and best friend. Tara is survived by five children whom she loved very much: Isaiah, 16; Nathaniel, 14; Michael, 12; Leyanna, 4; and Jaxson, 10 months. To share your well-wishes and fond memories of Tara, please visit www.simplicitycfs.com. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Tara's name to Gallery Church Southwest Baltimore.
