“ This is my mother. I can't believe she is really gone. I miss her so much every day. It's getting a little better as the days go by. When my mom left on May 15 2015 she took a little piece of me. I know she is looking down on me and her grand babies smiling and I feel her love and smell her perfume. I think if you mom every day. I wish I could give you one more hug and kiss but I know that would not be enough. Till I see you again rest easy mom. I love you and miss you so much. Xoxoxo Jennifer
