“ I don't have a lot of memories of my uncle Tom , but I do remember when I did see him he was a very happy, funny guy whenever he was with his sisters, he would joke with them especially with my aunt Diane ....My Dad Ernesto Delapaz has much love and respect for him because they both served in the military service ....God bless Uncle Tom and his family

“ He and I were stationed in the same post in Nuremberg Germany. All of my friends called him Uncle Tom. We had a great time, drank some German beer and eat lots of German foods. He was a person who listened when I needed that one person being away from home, as well he gave great advice. He will be missed . \n\nRichard Ramage.
