

Tiffany Lynn Easterwood

April 23, 1967 - August 21, 2021

Tiffany Lynn Easterwood (Sales) Born April 23, 1967 - passed away unexpectedly on August 21, 2021

Only four weeks after suddenly losing her mother.

Tiffany was born in Miami, Florida to David Hamilton Sales & Carole Lee Sales; both of whom preceded her in death.

Tiffany grew up, primarily in Carrollton, Georgia living with her father, but also spent a number of years living with her mother in Maryland.

The core of Tiffany's world was being a mother to Chad Michael Easterwood and Cali Nicole Cavender (Easterwood), and being Mom-Mom to her four grandchildren: Clayton Easterwood, Faith Puckett, Hunter Cavender, and Chad Cavender (who was born asleep).

Tiffany worked for Southern Company for many years as an executive Secretary and was also a bartender at the local VFW in Carrollton for several years.

Tiffany grew up in a very large family and is survived by 5 sisters Kimberly McCain, Tracey Sales-Anderson, Jennifer Hoffman, Kathleen (Kas) Sales, and Jessica Lasker, along with two brothers David Sales II, & Christopher Fryatt.

Tiffany possessed the traditional southern girl charm that could light up a room with her smile and laughter, or rock your world if you ever messed with her family or friends. She was a fixer, a protector, and a trusted confidant. Tiffany was a genuine person, who gave all that she had and loved with her entire soul.

Grief is the price we pay for love. —QUEEN ELIZABETH II

“ My heart is broken to hear of the loss but I know you're at peace and not in pain anymore. You've gone to your forever home and you're just waiting on the rest of the family to join you. Sweet soul gone too soon. Rest in heaven! I'll never forget you and all the times we had when I was wild back in the day! You always did your best with Cali and I haha we were some wild ones but you always could put us in our place 😂!!
