

Timothy Wayne Glover

January 14, 1954 - December 8, 2024

Timothy (Tim) Wayne Glover, 70, a longtime resident of Arnold, passed away December 8, 2024, at his home in Arnold. He was born on January 14, 1954, to Thomas Edward (Eddie) Glover and Dorothy (Dot) Glover.

Tim was a Master Plumber for 45 years until his retirement from Regan National Airport in 2021. He enjoyed listening to music, playing drums and jamming with friends. His other interests were camping, riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle, watching football, and spending time with friends and family.

Tim was preceded in death by his late parents, Thomas Edward Glover and Dorothy 'Dot' Glover, and his 2 brothers, James Glover and Thomas Glover, Jr.

Tim is survived by his wife of 41 years, Mary Jo Glover; his children, Lauren Glover and Allison (Glover) Long; his son-in-law Nicholas Long; his grandchildren Jeffery Long and Joseph Long; his sister Mary Helen (Glover) Hicks, brother Richard Glover, and nieces and nephews. His family and friends will always hold his sense of humor and infectious smile in their hearts.
