In Loving Memory of Victor Levi Colbert Jr.

A Life Remembered

“To Be Absent From The Body Is To Be Present With The Lord”

2 Corinthians 5:8

Obituary

Victor Levi Colbert Jr., affectionately known as “Vic,” peacefully transitioned on January 17, 2026. He was born on March 24, 1967, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Victor L. Colbert Sr. and Agnes E. Jones (Murray).

Education and Military Service

Victor received his early education in the Anne Arundel County Public Schools, graduating from Annapolis Senior High. Following graduation, he enlisted in the U.S. Army and served in the Army Reserves for ten years.

Professional Career

Victor held several positions at ARINC and the U.S. Naval Academy before embarking on a career with the United Parcel Service. He was a dedicated package delivery driver for 23 years and received numerous awards and accolades during his tenure.

Personal Interests and Family

Known for his debonair style, Victor made a fashion statement wherever he went. He enjoyed music, dancing, and was an avid fan of basketball and football, with the Indianapolis Colts being his favorite team. Victor also had a passion for cars. He cherished his family deeply, especially his children and grandchildren.

In Remembrance

Victor was preceded in death by his parents, Victor L. Colbert, Sr., and Agnes E. Jones (Murray); grandparents, Kent & Mary Jones and Ora Mae Thomas; aunt, Joan Brown; and uncles, Eddie, Elton Sr., and Reginald Jones.

Legacy

Left to cherish his memory are Dale Dickerson; daughters, Nickhelle Colbert, Nakyra Colbert, and Bridgette Colbert; sons, Victor Levi Colbert III and William Saunders (Shalonda); siblings, Michelle Smith (Michael), Yolanda Murray (Landers), Trinetta Dickerson (Patrick), Taleesha Dickerson, and Avery Dickerson; 10 grandchildren; (3) aunts, Angela Hayes, Elaine Johnson (Earl), Brenda Jones; (1) uncle, Pastor Theodore (Squannie) Jones (Sherry); nieces, nephews, a host of relatives, and a devoted friend, Colleen Colbert.

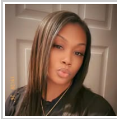

Victor will be truly missed.

Tribute Wall

“ I just heard about Victor's passing today. I work at Hynes & Waller, Inc in Upper Marlboro. He was our UPS driver for years. What a nice man, great smile & I can still hear his laugh. RIP Victor. Praying for Christ's Peace & comfort to his family & friends. - Ed Tranby
