

Victor Louis Pellarin

July 21, 1951 - February 15, 2017

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ I grew up across the street from Vic, and was saddened to learn of his passing. Vic was a few years older than me, and I looked up to him. I wanted to relate a story from my childhood. When I was 9 or 10, the county gave Hillsboro Drive a brand new coat of asphalt, and it was as smooth as asphalt can be, perfect for skateboarding. Vic, I and a few other kids went to the top of Hillsboro to ride the stretch down to N. Belgrade. The slope was pretty steep to start, then leveled out for the remainder. I was a little apprehensive before I started my first run. I started down the hill and picked up speed. I then felt a hand on my back. It was Vic, attempting to steady me. Despite the fact that I was doing fine, I jumped off the front of the skateboard and skinned the heck out of my knees and hands. Vic asked me why I did that, and it occurred to me that if I just hadn't panicked everything would have gone just fine and I would have had a really nice run. I have carried that thought with me to this day, and whenever I am faced with a difficult situation I remember the skateboard, and just ride it out. Don't panic. The lesson has served me well. Thanks, Vic, you helped me greatly in my life. \n\n -Tommy Barry

---

Tom Barry - April 16, 2017 at 05:23 PM

RB

“ Sorry to hear of the passing of Vic. Even though I have not seen him in many years, still have some good memories of high school and a trip to OCEAN CITY, MD. Rest In Peace Victor

---

Robert Blanchard - March 18, 2017 at 01:14 PM