“ Dear Lisa, Ronnie, and John: Although, there are no words that can describe the pain and lost of losing a loved one, on behalf of my family and I, please accept our condolences and deepest sympathies. As we remember the memories and relationships each of us had with Terry that bind us to love and unity, we will not forget his Kindred spirit and soul. For example, when my son Ahmez was stationed in Iraq, Terry would send him packages that were very much appreciated. In addition, back in the day when Terry worked near me, he would meet me at my job for lunch to catch up on each other's family and friends. We also shared good times fellowshipping at our house during Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. Rest in peace Nephew Terry for my family and I will truly miss your loving smile.

“ I would like to let the Robinson Family know that I admired and respected Terry. It has been awhile when we had the chance to see or talk to each other. I have always enjoyed his encouraging and positive spirit. Our friendship started in high school when we were on the Nottingham High School track team. He taught me how to become an excellent track person. He was always willing to share his wisdom and track expertise. He will never be forgotten by all who had the opportunity to get to know him. May he forever find peace and rest in God's Heavenly Kingdom. Dallas Washington '77 Silver Spring, Maryland

“ As a fashion producer and director there are many people you meet in this career. However there are only a chosen few you will meet on both a professional and personal level that displayed the character and professionalism of Terry Robinson. On and off stage he exemplified what it meant to be a true gentlemen. Kind, caring, charismatic, debonair, and exuberant all describe Terry. May God bless his family at this time. Rest in Heaven my ole friend/colleague with all the other brilliant ones gone too soon. God thank you for allowing Terry to cross my path of life. A King

“ Lisa and the family, I so very sorry to learn about the passing of my beloved Terry! As you know Terry and I have been friends for years. He was such a gentleman and a very good friend. Terry was that person when he walked in the all eyes would be on him. He was quite the charmer and had that superior smile and laughter that was contagious. He was so smooth on the runway and looked sharped in all of the designers garments. Terry was sharp every time he stepped out the house. He loved his family so very much. It breaks my heart to know he's no longer here on earth, but in a better place. Sending condolences to you and the family. Terry R.I.P my friend.

“ Terry was a great friend, a neighbor and my young brother. He'd always stop to greet me, say hello, ask about my family and life in general accompanied with his signature smile and laughter. I believe Terry's spirit came to my house the day he passed away just to say goodbye. I remember I talked about him that morning, asking myself why I had not seen him for a while. I guess he was somewhere in the clouds smiling. Since I learnt of his passing, I have been playing continuously a song from the movie \"The Josephine Baker Story\". The name of the song is \"The Times, They Are Changing\". A few years back, Terry had asked me to make for him a copy of this video which I obliged. Life Is But A Dream ! Terry, you were loved. You will never be forgotten. I will miss your great smile and words of wisdom. You are at a better place now, and you are free at last..

“ I would like to extend sympathy to all of Terry's friends and family. I met him many years ago when he began his modeling career and he was a personable asset to all of the runway shows that I produced over the years and had the pleasure of working with him. A handsome and charismatic gentleman, and I am so happy to have had the good fortune to spend time with him.

“ Our hearts go out to all of Terry's family, friends and acquaintances on this very sad occasion. We pray that Jehovah comforts those who are grieving and gives them the strength to endure each and every day forward. May you cherish your memories of him, and reflect only on the good moments. We will fondly remember all of the wonderful times we spent growing up and getting to know Terry and the Robinson Family. One day death will be no more, and we will finally experience life the way God intended it to be at Revelation 21:3-4. May your faith in this hope bring you peace that excels all thoughts.

“ You stood tall and proud in your fineness! You walked with purpose and swagger. You were oh so cool and charming on that runway! Thank you for sharing your passion for the world of fashion and modeling with me. That world is where you shine nephew. I saw it in the twinkling of your eyes up close and personal. I was so proud of you dear nephew as you walk your walk. I remember our time at the Kennedy Center where we mixed with celebrities and politicians -- Esther Rolle (actress), Dexter King (MLK son), and so many others that night. I think we never stopped smiling even after leaving. You were caring, fun-loving, sweet, and humble. You were my confidant, my armor, my friend! I will miss you my dear nephew! A.R.D.! Kisses and hugs nephew! Love Auntie! 🍷
