

Colin Wayne McKean

August 21, 1962 - February 8, 2023

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

AN

“ Colin Wayne McKean will remain in our hearts forever.

Anonymous - February 21, 2023 at 07:33 PM

HB

“ Where to begin... Im so very blessed for the last year with you. I regret tremendously that we didn't do it sooner. We spent a decade being angry, separated by time, and lack of knowledge from both ends. I regret I wasn't a better sister sooner. We had alot of hard conversations, laughed , made plans, and shared our hopes and dreams. Your smile was contagious, Exuded confidence, and though a tough exterior loved deep. I will never forget the knowledge you gave me working at East coast Architectural Or the business plans we discussed. You are one of the hardest working men I know. Always there for those you loved. Never abandoned anyone, just sometimes we have to find our path. So very sorry I didn't find mine sooner. Had the best day with you a couple weeks ago. We did alittle shopping, had breakfast. We then went back to your place and watched crime shows alllllllll day. Had alot of heart to hearts. It was the absolute best day together. I'm absolutely broken your gone. Thank you for being the best big brother and uncle. You are deeply missed. Please watch over everyone. \n\nLove always,\nYour biggest fan\nYour baby sister Heather and family.

Heather Baker - February 20, 2023 at 03:55 PM

JH

“ Colin, \nYou were my best friend and significant other for 7 years. You were the love of my life. My person who I could always depend on, no matter what. I am going to miss you so much. My heart is broken 💔 I hope you know the true magnificence you had on my life. Please continue to watch over your boys and family who are struggling without you.

Jennifer Hamer - February 19, 2023 at 07:12 PM

TM

“ Uncle Collin was a amazing person kind heart caring and would always make you laugh ! Only got to spend a short amount of time with you but from what I see and told you definitely made a impact on people's life's ! Please watch over me chris the kids aunt heather her kiddos uncle Eddie and uncle Wayne ! Give us your strength

Tiffany and chris McKean - February 19, 2023 at 07:07 PM

CH

“ I'll forever remember the day you met my twin Eleinni 💙 you were so happy that day. I'll cherish that for the rest of my life. I didn't know but when I seen you that day I was already pregnant with my 2nd baby. You told me \"I'm proud of you cyn\" 1st tine in my life I heard that from you. Rest easy uncle Colin 🙏

Cynthia Hopkins - February 19, 2023 at 10:43 AM

EM

“ Ed and I had the pleasure of seeing our brother the weekend before his passing and it was a wonder time. He met his great niece for the first time ever. Colin had many great nieces and nephews. Big brother we will sulry miss your jokes and your dry humor. Love to the family always and forever.

Ed & Tammy McKean - February 19, 2023 at 09:42 AM

BG

“ Undeniably one of the funniest people I've ever met. From our times coaching our kids to our countless days in the wood's bow hunting, you never failed to entertain. My boy's, who are now young men, still walk around the house quoting two of your favorite sayings "Oh, shit balls" and "That's F'in Awesome." I obviously cleaned up the last quote! If the good Lord has a sense of humor...you my friend, will be one of his best pals. You rest easy Mr. Shit Balls, and we'll see you down the road.

Buddy Goetzger - February 14, 2023 at 12:49 PM

DB

“ Colin McKean was a amazing man I was married to him and even our marriage not lasting he was always a dear friend to me I knew him 30years and he will be missed so much , he was a amazing father to his 3 Sons and he loved them so much . I will miss u Colin ur laugh ur funny things u always did and u was always the life of the party ..I love u and will miss u. Always ur friend D 💕

Denise Baker - February 13, 2023 at 09:00 AM

BG

“ I will always remember him as "Coach Colin". He did a lot for the Arden Attackers. I enjoyed his sense of humor. Behind the stoic exterior was a guy trying to lead a bunch of kids into adulthood. I really enjoyed my time with him. Rest in Peace! -Bruce

Bruce goodwin - February 12, 2023 at 04:52 PM

CC

“ So Saddened by your Passing. I will miss you. We spent many wonderful years together coaching our son's in Baseball. We had so many fun times traveling with the boys for baseball. So many BBQs at my place on weekends during tournaments. We watched our son's grow up together since they were 9 years old. We shared \nour Son's Maryland High School Baseball Championship together. The laughs we had together will never be forgotten. We worked very well together to create youth baseball teams that could compete. The Boys loved you and always looked up to you. We sure spent a lot of money eating out a lot. We confided in one another with personal issues and provided therapy when we were stressed. We looked at and treated each other's son's as our own. You will always have a place in my life despite knowing that you are no longer with us in person. I can go on forever about the times and moments we shared. You will be missed but always remembered and be my friend . Thanks for your wonderful friendship. \n\nChris Cinqunto

Chris Cinqunto - February 12, 2023 at 04:25 PM

AM

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss ~ Simplicity Cremation & Funeral Services

A Memorial Tree was planted for Colin Wayne McKean - February 12, 2023 at 12:54 PM